Almighty God, you are our Father. Your love for us is greater than the ocean. Your provision for us is sure as the rising sun. Your desire for us to trust you is deeper than any longing we have ever known. We are your children. Help us to love you, to obey you, and to follow you always. Forgive us for relying too often on our own wisdom rather than coming to you through prayer and the reading of your Word. Hear now our silent confessions and forgive our sins. This we pray in the mighty name of Jesus. AMEN.

CARE AND CONCERN

MISSIONARY PRAYER REQUEST: The second part of Chris Matthews' end-of-year report is focused on Bible related events. A lot of preparation went into the academic conference in Seville at which Chris lectured on the development of the first Spanish Bible and on the ancient translators. This lecture attracted local and national attention and support. The efforts he supports at the Monastery of San Isidoro in Santiponce relate to this lecture because that is where some of the translators worked, and it will become the spiritual center of the revival of Spanish Protestantism. He asks for prayer.

What separates business in general from business done in God's way with God's heart and passion? Eva Steward shares key principles for being a Christian in the marketplace and for making impact in the lives of clients and employees. She believes that God's kingdom is as vast and pervasive as the Bible declares it to be, having implications for your life and mine no matter what kind of business or ministry we lead.
