Sermon Notes:

“A Question and A Challenge”

Pray for our Missionaries!

Chris and Beth Matthews are staying busy with the Lord's work as reported in their April Update. They headed to Ecuador early this month to visit with three Liebenzell missionaries who serve in very difficult areas, as well as, three different native tribes. It is Chris's normal plan to pass out copies of John's Gospel and this time it was 30 copies.

Then, on to Mexico City where Chris will give a lecture series about a 16th Century Spanish Bible translation to a group of scholars from several Spanish speaking countries.

Let's continue to pray for Chris's work and family.

Members and Friends of HPC: We need your assistance!

Please make all contribution checks payable to “Hendersonville Presbyterian Church,” even if they are for a Designated Fund, or an organization we support, like Creative Beginnings. You can specify those designations on the Memo line of the check, but we cannot deposit checks that are not made out to HPC. We apologize if some of our recent communications may have contributed to a misunderstanding about this.

Guidelines for Restarting Church Van Ministry

Effective May 9, the church van will be picking up residents of Carolina Village and Lake Pointe Landing. These are the guidelines for riding in the church van:

- 1) Riders must wear a mask while in the van.
- 2) We strongly encourage that you have completed the covid vaccinations before riding.
- 3) You will ride at your own risk.
