Welcome to Creative Beginnings

From the moment you walk through our doors, you and your child will feel a warm atmosphere of LOVE, LEARNING, and FUN! You will find a close-knit Christian staff dedicated to our COMMITMENT to EXCELLENCE!

Our Mission

Children are our most precious gifts. We encourage our children to explore God's wonderful world of LEARNING with us!

We offer a variety of ENRICHMENT activities including art, music, science,

Our Curriculum

The Project Approach is a curriculum that incorporates child-led investigations of worthy topics that allow children to develop literacy, numeracy, and social studies skills.

Our 2's class develop their language and social skills while eagerly learning through exploring and discovery.

Our 3's class will build on these skills and begin to share their experiences/ideas about the topics being explored.

Our 4's & 5's class will foster independence as they begin to lead more sub-topic investigations and develop higher critical thinking skills.

creative movement, and physical activities. We emphasize the development of character, self-esteem, social skills, confidence, and imagination.

The Creative Beginnings Experience

We share in a partnership with our parents by creating a Christian environment of learning, happiness, health, and safety for our children. The key to our success is a communication with our professional staff working with our involved parents as a TEAM. We will do all we can to ensure your peace of mind by surrounding your child with LOVE, CONCERN, and CHALLENGING OPPORTUNITIES daily!
