Welcome, Announcements, and Opening Prayer

Lighting of the Advent Candle

We light this candle as a sign of the coming of the light of Peace in Christ.
We celebrate Jesus' Advent—His coming—both past and future.

We are preparing ourselves for the days when the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together and a little child shall lead them.
But even now, as we live in the in-between times, we enjoy

Isaiah 11:16

The peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Prayer of Confession

Holy God, during Advent, we confess we are often distracted by the busyness of this season, by the stress of preparation, and by making our own traditions the priority.
We confess we often prefer being sentimental to being sacrificial. Forgive us for not prioritizing You this season.

Forgive us for missing opportunities to bless others this Christmas, who might be struggling, hurting, lonely, or grieving. Please pour Your peace into our lives and let us be bearers of Your peace to others.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

...Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven! Thanks be to God!

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be. World without end. Amen, amen.

Prayer of Intercession and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

Today is the second Sunday of Advent, a four-week season in the Church calendar dedicated to anticipating the "advent," of Jesus of Nazareth, the long-awaited Messiah. During Advent, we light a candle representing our reflection on hope, peace, love, and joy. On the second Sunday of Advent, we light the candle of peace.

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the greatness of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

Isaiah 9:6-7

We read Isaiah as we light the Peace Candle, we focus on the fact that Jesus is the Prince of Peace who offers a peace that surpasses all understanding and remains with us regardless of life's challenges. This second week of Advent invites us to prepare our hearts, just as Bethlehem was prepared for Jesus, making room for God's peace in our lives and in our relationships.

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heav'nly host: praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen
