

Christine Callahan

Assistant Teacher 3's

Christine is excited to be an assistant teacher for the three year old class. She's been a teacher and child care provider for many years and hopes to provide a joyful, creative environment in which children will grow and blossom.

When not in the classroom Christine enjoys singing in and directing a choir, spending time with family and friends, and taking her little dog, Milly, for walks.