

Susan Thompson, Office Manager

Susan is a life-long native of Henderson County. She attended West Henderson High School and earned a Bachelor of Administration degree from Montreat College. Susan's 34-year career was spent as a Human Resources Manager at a large manufacturing facility which employed over 600 employees. Her HR background encompassed a broad spectrum in the Human Resources field which included Human Resource Management, Employee Relations, Safety/Security, Compensation & Benefits, Payroll and Training & Development. After retiring in 2018, Susan pursued other interests in part-time employment with two local banking institutions before coming on-board with HPC in January 2021.

Susan lives in Hendersonville and enjoys bowling, walking, hiking and container gardening. She is a part-time caregiver for her mother and is also very active in her local church where she serves as song leader and church clerk/treasurer.
