

Tim Browning

Worship Accompanist

Tim Browning is a lifelong musician with a passion for using music to glorify God and enrich the worship experience. A graduate of Houston's High School for the Performing and Visual Arts (HSPVA), Tim has a diverse musical background that includes singing with the Houston Symphony Chorus, directing string ensembles, and performing as a violinist, pianist, and organist. He is currently a member of the Blue Ridge Ringers handbell ensemble.

Tim has served in church music ministry for more than 20 years in a variety of roles, including worship leader, music director, choir director, and accompanist. Equally comfortable with traditional and contemporary worship styles, he enjoys bringing musicians and congregations together in meaningful worship. In addition to his church ministry, Tim teaches music and delights in helping students of all ages discover and develop their musical gifts.
